PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It is with pleasure that I present my report for Season 2013, a year which seems to have been universally declared as one of the quickest ever known!

As has become the norm in recent times, I am again pleased to be able to state that this association has maintained, and indeed enhanced its reputation both within Australia and internationally. The ongoing efforts by our referees, referee coaches, administrators and of course, their respective support groups have again been nothing short of phenomenal. The tangible proof of this is most clearly evident by what I always refer to as our "shopfront" – that is, the higher profile levels of our game, which gives prominence and exposure to our more senior and high profile referees. It is a great source of pride to see our mates and colleagues performing so admirably and competently on the world stage, in addition to providing great encouragement and incentive to aspiring referees.

But it's much more than that. It's the referees and coaches who get little or no recognition for their weekly contribution to our great game. Those who put in the long hours, drive the long distances and strive to improve simply because they love the game and love refereeing. You people are the heart and soul of our association. This, coupled with the strong desire of your current and recent office bearers to encourage a strong air of positivity devoid of agendas and destructive influences, is what we must continue to do to ensure that this spirit is maintained.

The year of 2013 provided many highlights. On the field, we were represented at the highest level by Steve Walsh, Angus Gardner, Andrew Lees and James Leckie. Special mention to James, who completed a stellar comeback by being reselected for the Sanzar referee squad, in addition to passing the special milestone of 100 First Grade games, as did Nathan Pearce. Anthony Moyes and Amy Perrett continued their impressive performances in Sevens. Our other ARU National Panel referees, Ian Smith, Edward Martin, Will Houston, Michael Hogan and Richard Goswell all contributed at Super Rugby level as Assistant Referees, and in the middle at numerous other representative fixtures both domestically and internationally.

Congratulations to all those who achieved personal milestones in 2013. Whether it be number of games, first match at a particular level, or perhaps a Grand Final. Many of these are recorded elsewhere in this Annual Report. Special mention to Angus Gardner, who refereed his first Shute Shield Grand Final.

Off the field, we celebrated the wonderful contribution to NSW refereeing from Norm Stevens, who announced his retirement from "active duty". We wish Norm and Margery all the very best and look forward to catching up at social events and at the footy. Ian Pascoe also hung up the boots and clipboard after many years of fine contribution.

Our matriarch (I'll get into trouble for that one), the one and only Robin Timmins, received much deserved recognition for her many years of ensuring the wheels of NSW refereeing continue to turn. Robin was awarded Life Membership of the NSWRU, an OAM, and an IRB Award in recognition of her service to the game. Sincere congratulations and thanks, Robin! Andrew Cole and Wayne Erickson were recently appointed as IRB Selectors for Mens' and Womens' 15-a-side Rugby respectively. Whilst this is probably an achievement for Australian Refereeing from national perspective, it is extremely important for us within NSW. Congratulations to both these gents.

We participated in an Interchange with Canterbury RRA (NZ), with Brendon Farrar as our representative in Christchurch. Brendon represented us with aplomb, and gained much experience in the process. Unfortunately, the same cannot be said for the Canterbury referee, Spencer Tait. Poor Spencer strained his hamstring 5 minutes into his first game in Sydney and was forced to return home. Special thanks to Buddy Kyle and Blair York for providing accommodation for Spencer during his albeit truncated time in Sydney.

Special thanks also go to Andrew Halmarick, who as a Director of Craig & Rhodes, provided training shirts for all active referees. This was a magnificent and generous gesture from Andrew and his company, for which we are extremely grateful.

The social side of life comprised of several informal get togethers, and culminated in another outstanding Annual Dinner and Awards Evening, held this year at the impressive Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron at Kirribilli. It was a venue befitting the status and history of our Association. The dinner proved to be a great opportunity to relax and reflect on another busy year. It was encouraging to see so many younger referees present, along with many partners who provide such great support to us, and of course, our Life Members who have contributed so much over a long period of time.

Whilst on the subject of the Annual Dinner, we were delighted to host the Executive Director of NSWRU, Mr Bruce Worboys; Chairman of NSWRU, Mr Nick Farr-Jones; and Director of SRU, Mr Chris Birch. Their attendance was much appreciated, and reflects their recognition of the efforts of all referees in NSW. Historically, referees have often struggled for appropriate acknowledgement from other participants of the game. However, this cannot be said of these gents, who not only acknowledge, but actively assist refereeing in this state, particularly in the area of respect for match officials. This is an ongoing issue, and it is vital that we have the support of our home Union if unsavoury acts such as referee abuse and intimidation are to be eradicated.

We are indeed fortunate to have amongst us a special group of dedicated and extremely able referee coaches. Their collective wisdom and experience are invaluable to the referees who benefit from their guidance and advice. It is crucial for a group such as this to be free of personal agendas, and I am delighted to say that they maintain the continued improvement of referees as their primary focus. Michael Tanzer has chaired this group extremely well. Michael's input has been in this forum, as well as via the NSWRU Referee Management Committee, which consisted of Michael, Peter Marshall, Wayne Erickson and I. Decisions made by this group are largely implemented by Ron Mancell, who with Alex Richards, continue to put in long hours in ensuring the smooth running of the nuts and bolts of refereeing in NSW. Our thanks to Ron and Alex.

Finally, I wish to express my sincere thanks to my diligent and highly competent Executive team. Secretary Ed Martin, Treasurer Phil Baird and General Member Tim Wills have worked extremely hard in ensuring their respective roles are carried out effectively and punctually. Their efforts have led to outcomes such as the well received Association Newsletter, successful social events, and a healthy financial position.

I trust you all return for Season 2014 relaxed, healthy, fit and ready for what will be another packed rugby calendar.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Again it has been my pleasure and privilege to serve as President of this great Association.

John McCarthy
President, NSWRRRA Inc.

NSW RUGBY REFEREE DEPARTMENT REPORT

The department again provided referee education and development in the form of courses, education nights and seminars for the association.

Our development programs for referees continued in 2013. Whilst the long standing development groups continue to function in their well-trodden ways, the ongoing success of the SRIP and MRIP and the enthusiasm of these squad members continued to be a highlight of our development program. We have decided to increase the number of referees in the MRIP to provide more education and development opportunities for more referees. Thanks goes to the Squad Leaders for their commitment to leading these development groups.

There are a number of development activities (tournaments or matches) which continued in 2013 to contribute to individual referee development. The CHS carnival and the Gold Coast Schoolboy Carnival are two which highlight the opportunities for our emerging referees. These will continue in the new-year with the CHS Carnival being held on the South Coast in 2014.

We successfully supported the Lavengamalie Church in Tonga with referees for their biennial tournament. Ten referees represented NSWRRRA over the Nov 2013 – Jan 2014 period. This event is to be conducted again in 2015 in Tonga.

A substantial number of referees from NSWRRRA also represented the association at the Central Coast Sevens and Darwin's Hottest Sevens. Sevens and events such as the Lavengamalie will be used as major development activities into the future.

The 1st Grade Premier Coaches and 1st Grade Referees met before the season commenced and discussed how the game was to be played and refereed in 2013. The same can be said for Sydney Suburban as we conducted a series of seminars for them and closed the loop on a fairly successful "adopt a referee program".

2013 saw the introduction of the Respect Rugby program in response to the previous year's poor record of referee abuse. The success of the program was varied. In Suburban Rugby, CAS and ISA, Sydney Juniors and some Country Zones, the program was fully embraced and generally there was a great improvement in the week to week experiences of our referees. Unfortunately, in other areas of community rugby, the experience was not as positive.

We will continue to work with all stake holders in community rugby to improve this aspect of the game for all participants.

The NSWRU Referees Department would like to thank VOLVO for their support of Premier Rugby in 2013 and we look forward to their support in years to come.

We would also like to acknowledge the support of the NSWRRRA Executive, the Referee Coaching Panel and all referees who participated in 2013.

NSW RUGBY REFEREE DEPARTMENT REPORT

I would like to acknowledge again the support of my two colleagues in the referee department. As we all know, Robin received a number of well-deserved awards in 2013. Alex continues to provide an exceptional level of support. I hope we can continue to support NSWRRRA in 2014 and improve on the level of support we provide to the rugby community.

REFEREES MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT

2013 saw the continuation of the road to self discovery as a prime motivation in referee coaching. As a group we all strived to be the best we could be on and off the field. The implementation of the Game/Plan/Review process from the previous year and consolidation of this model across all levels of rugby refereeing saw great strides forward in performance and a more solid understanding and consistency in coaching referees. The key aspects of emphasis in reviewing games were around the empathy the referee has for the game, their ability to then change player behaviour as required in a tactically astute manner and then being technically proficient or accurate in their decision making. This process in coaching referees is unashamedly proactive in NSW in implementing the ARU's and SANZAR's vision of best practice in referee coaching. It is important for NSW to maintain its prominence in being on song and leading with these groups to advance not only refereeing in NSW but also Australia.

To this end it is pleasing to revel in the successes of some of our association at the representative level. Steve Walsh continues to lead Australian referees with appointments in The British Lions Tour, The Rugby Championship, November Northern Hemisphere tests, Six Nations and Super Rugby Finals. We wish Steve well for the future as he now resides in the very appropriately named Sunshine Coast. Angus Gardner refereed Japan v Tonga, Super Rugby and the Sydney First grade Grand final. Andrew Lees attended the Junior World Cup Tournament in France and also refereed Super Rugby as did James Leckie. Anthony Moyes and Amy Perrett continued to represent us at several iRB Sevens tournaments each doing finals in Tokyo and Dubai. Ian Smith, Ed Martin, Will Houston, Richard Goswell and Michael Hogan all were involved in Super Rugby as assistants and most refereed Schools tests. The representative honours of the association are spread across these 11 members and does not include numerous selections at national carnivals and Sevens tournaments by many more. It does indicate the success of the development programs and the depth of the successes should be shared by all in the association. We look forward to bigger things ahead.

Now for some self indulgence. This is my final year as Chairman of the committee. It is time for a new person to take the reins and I welcome the very statesman like Peter Marshall to the chair. I look forward to his immense experience and cool head guiding the way which I will enjoy still as a member on the committee together with some new members in 2014 with Dan Cheever and Frank Meiklejohn joining the team. John McCarthy remains on the team and is as solid as ever. I have enjoyed my time as chairman greatly and feel we are in a good place to move forward.

It's important to thank all the referee's who have challenged themselves, worked hard on their game and embraced change, as Rugby is a game of fluidity that morph's every year. The referee coaches and squad coaches, who are absolutely altruistic, keen to learn about the game and to learn about their individual referees, for their great work not just this year but also for their ongoing desire to simply help. Thanks also to Andrew Cole (ARU) and Lyndon Bray (SANZAR), both good friends, for their willingness to share and mentor me along the way. No organisation like this can run without the support of the likes of Robin Timmins, Ron Mancell and Alex Richards in the office. We all owe a great deal of thanks to this group. Special thanks also to my companions on the Committee, Marsho as mention above but also Gus Erickson. Gus leaves the committee this year to concentrate on his iRB and ARU duties more.

REFEREES MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT

You just feel a presence with Gus, soundness and a sense of fun deep down inside, really. To my great mate John McCarthy, a man of many flaws, but without him the job would have been so much tougher. He is a great sounding board, a man of great honesty and a forward thinker. Finally, and most importantly, my sincere thanks to my family and especially Caroline for her unswerving and at times unswearing support. It's her and the kids who have sacrificed so much.

Bravo et bonne chance mes amis

Now jouer!

INDEPENDENT AUDIT REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF

NEW SOUTH WALES RUGBY REFEREES' ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED

Scope

Crispin and Jeffery have audited the financial statements being a special purpose financial report comprising the Income and Expenditure Statement, Balance Sheet and Notes to the Financial Statements of the New South Wales Rugby Referees' Association Incorporated for the year ended 30th September 2013. The Executive Committee of the Association is responsible for the preparation and presentation of the financial statements and the information contained therein, and has determined that the accounting policies used and described in note 1 to the financial statements are appropriate to meet the needs of members. Crispin and Jeffery have conducted an independent audit of the financial statements in order to express an opinion to the members of the New South Wales Rugby Referees' Association Incorporated on their presentation and preparation.

The financial statements have been prepared for distribution to members for the purpose of fulfilling the Executive Committee's financial reporting responsibilities under the Associations Incorporation Act 1984. Crispin and Jeffery disclaims any assumption of responsibility for any reliance on this report or on the financial statements to which it relates to any person other than the members, or for any purpose other than for which it was prepared.

The audit has been conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. The procedures included an examination, on a test basis, of evidence supporting the amounts and other disclosures in the financial statements, and evaluation of significant accounting estimates. These procedures have been undertaken to form an opinion as to whether, in all material respects, the financial statements are prepared fairly in accordance with the accounting policies described in note 1 of the financial statements. These policies do not require the application of all Statements of Accounting Concepts and Accounting Standards.

The audit opinion expressed in this report has been formed on the above basis.

Audit Opinion

Crispin and Jeffrey is of the opinion that the financial statements are properly drawn up in accordance with the accounting policies described in Note 1 to the financial statements, and present fairly the financial position of the New South Wales Rugby Referees' Association Incorporated as at the 30th September 2013 and of its surplus for the year then ended.

NEW SOUTH WALES RUGBY REFEREES' ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED

STATEMENT BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

As stated in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Association is not a reporting entity because in the opinion of the Executive Committee, there is unlikely to exist users who are unable to command the preparation of reports tailored so as to satisfy all of their information needs. This is therefore a special purpose report that has been prepared to meet the requirements of the Associations Incorporated Act 1984.

In the opinion of the Executive Committee the accompanying financial statements are drawn up so as to give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Association as at the 30th of September 2013 and of its surplus for the year ended on that date in accordance with the accounting policies described in Note 1 to the financial statements.

At the date of this statement there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Association can pay its debts as said when they fall due.

This statement is made in accordance with a resolution of the Executive Committee.
