PRESIDENT'S REPORT

As has become the norm, the season of 2015 yet again proved to be extremely demanding but very successful. As a predominantly volunteer association, we can feel justly proud of the way in which we service the needs of our great game.

The fundamental motivation should always be involvement and enjoyment; and whilst the job we do every weekend is not without its challenges, we must always retain a sense of perspective and wherever possible resist the seven deadly sins as they may be applied to Rugby refereeing. That said, as your President, I am extremely proud of each and every member of this Association, regardless of experience, level or ability. Collectively, we undertake our duties with a high level of competency and within the Spirit of Rugby. And considering the number of matches and hours of participation, negative or unsavoury issues are minimal.

Perspective comes from many sources, but none more so than from the tragic passing in October of our great mate and colleague, Guy Grinham. As most would be aware, the role Rugby played in making Guy's final days a little more enjoyable was as humbling as it was moving. But it was the manner in which the Rugby community embraced Guy's journey which reflected the high esteem in which he was held by all who knew him. He will never be forgotten – rest in peace, Guy.

This Association provides a sense of unity to its members in what is largely a solo pursuit. Therefore, it is imperative that we support each other in good times and bad, and make a fuss when we have some success. 2015 saw many notable achievements, all of which reflect well upon all members. Some of these include:

- Angus Gardner – Super Rugby, Rugby World Cup, Appointment to 2016 Six Nations (Ireland v Italy, Dublin)
- George Ayoub – TMO Super Rugby, Rugby World Cup, 2016 Six Nations
- Andrew Lees – Super Rugby, Final NRC
- William Houston – NRC Semifinal, Junior World Cup Final, recent selection onto 2016 Super Rugby Referee Panel
- Amy Perrett – 2016 Womens Six Nations (Ireland v Italy, Dublin)
- Anthony Moyes – 200 games IRB/World rugby Sevens
- Michael Hogan, Edward Martin – NRC
- James Leckie, Ian Smith – Super Rugby AR, TMO

Congratulations to all these outstanding referees for representing themselves, their families, their country and their Association with aplomb.

Of course, not all achievements are as high profile as those mentioned above, nor is success measured only by appointments. Finals, grand finals, selection for representative fixtures, tournaments, national championships etc. are all tangible measurements of achievement. But there are also less tangible ways such as simply being a better referee than you were a year ago. All these should be applauded.

Our higher profile referees would be the first to admit that success on the Rugby field is not achieved without the help of many people. A supportive family or home life is essential, and the support from wives and partners is gratefully acknowledged. But a huge amount of thanks and appreciation also goes to our dedicated band of referee coaches, who attend grounds at all points of the compass with the aim of improving the skills of our referees. The respective coaching groups led by our coaches are also essential in building that camaraderie and teamwork, as well as a generous helping of healthy competition.

I would also like to thank and acknowledge my colleagues on the NSWRU Referee Management Committee – Peter Marshall, Daniel Cheever and Michael Tanzer. The amount of behind the scenes work carried out by these gentlemen is extraordinary. They bring a high level of intelligence, thinking and sound discussion and we are extremely fortunate to have people of this calibre.

Special thanks go to the NSWRU staff. Its Executive Director, Bruce Worboys is very aware of the input from you all, and we are fortunate to have a close working relationship with our home Union. Thanks also to the NSWRU Referee Department; Ron Mancell, Robin Timmins, Alex Richards, and to Scott Rogan and Matt Kellahan for their assistance.

Socially, again the highlight was the Annual dinner and Awards Night, held at the delightful Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron at Kirribilli, followed by prime seats at Star Sports bar to watch the RWC clash between South Africa and New Zealand. Whilst a little subdued on account of Guy's passing, those in attendance enjoyed a wonderful night of good conversation and merriment, just as Guy would have wanted.

One of the major tasks carried out by your Executive in 2015 was the pursuit of sponsorship. We sought the services of a reputable sports marketing firm to value our "brand" that we could take to the market. We were extremely close to signing with a large Australian company, but their untimely financial difficulties resulted in that deal stalling at the last minute. We will continue to work tirelessly to secure appropriate levels of sponsorship in the New Year.

Another area of significant effort has been our ongoing desire to elevate the standing of match officiating within the game of Rugby. It has long been a personal goal to change perception of officiating from a "necessary evil" to one which recognises that it is as much a part of the fabric of the game as playing or coaching. Unfortunately, this fact continues to be lost on many who participate in or watch the game. I feel that it largely arises through ignorance in not being aware of what skills are required to become a quality referee or match official. It is also essential that we conduct ourselves professionally at all times if we are to generate the necessary credibility to assist in this regard.

It is gratifying to see such quality in our younger referees, and I sincerely hope that you embrace refereeing, and all it has to offer. We are in good hands! As Rugby continues to grow, and relatively new frontiers such as Sevens and Womens' Rugby become an even more significant part of the rugby landscape, it is an exciting time for our game.

To my Executive team of David Jones-Prichard, Tim Wills and Phil Baird, all of whom do so much for the Association, a huge thank you. Lads, you are all a pleasure to work with.

Finally, after having served this fine Association as your President for 13 years, I have decided that it is time to pass on the baton, and therefore will not seek re-election at the next Annual General Meeting. I have several new challenges in Rugby I wish to pursue, and several bottles of aged Barossa shiraz to enjoy.

In my time as President I have had the opportunity to work with and meet some wonderful people. As those who know me are aware, I am extremely passionate about this Association; its history, its values, its high standing internationally, its future and most importantly, its people.

I sincerely thank you all for the honour and privilege of holding the position of NSWRRRA President for 13 years, and will be forever grateful for the opportunity.

I wish each and every one of you every success in your refereeing, and:

“Be the best you can be!”

John McCarthy

NSW RUGBY REFEREE DEPARTMENT REPORT

2015 was a far more comfortable year financially following the very difficult 2014. With the Waratahs winning the Super Rugby Championship in 2014, NSWRU's financial outlook became considerably more stable and we were able to do much more with the funds we were given.

NSWRU was able to resume funding the Communications gear for Premier Rugby removing this burden from the association. With the purchases of communications gear we made in 2014, we have been able to continue to provide kit for our referee coaches. The other positive which came from increased funding was our ability to purchase more referee kit. Whilst this did not directly impact NSWRRRA (because we did not cut back on kit for the association in 2014) it did mean that there was less pressure on being able to provide kit for other associations and new referees.

The department again provided referee education and development in the form of courses, education nights and seminars for the association. We made greater use of our senior referees in delivering education this season.

The development groups continued in 2015. For 2016, we will be re-invigorating all groups by providing new coaches to most of them. This is not a criticism of the 2015 coaches but the Management Committee felt that it was time to ring some changes. My thanks go to the Development Coaches for 2015. They have continued their long tradition of unearthing talent and developing it. For the incoming coaches, you have a hard act to follow.

As in previous years, we again used some external tournaments as development activities for our referees. The CHS Carnival was held in Wagga and we had 6 referees and 4 referee coaches in attendance over the three days of competition. The Central Coast 7's and the Darwin 7's were again used as development activities. To the above 7's we can now add the Kiama Sevens. Whilst this is a tournament shared with NSW Country and ACT referees, it is now controlled by NSWRU and is by invitation. The Event Organisers approached us for support to assist them in lifting the profile of the tournament by improving the level of officiating. This we did for 2015 and will do again in 2016 and beyond.

We continued the initiative of bringing the 1st grade referees in both Suburban and Premier Rugby into the same room before the season start and going through the GMG together. These meetings forge friendships between referees and coaches and contribute to a better understanding of the game on both sides. We also continued the "adopt a referee" program, aligning referees with clubs for the season. These two initiatives will continue in 2016.

2015 saw the re-launching of the Respect Rugby program, particularly in the Country and Schools. There is still some distance to go in order to make this work satisfactorily across the state but it is obvious that the situation is improving. Respect Rugby has been adopted by the ARU for implementation across the whole country in 2016.

I wish to acknowledge our sponsors, Gilbert who provide us with our referee kit and Volvo who remain a sponsor of Premier 1st Grade.

We would also like to acknowledge the support of the NSWRRRA Executive, the Referee Coaching Panel and all referees who participated in 2015.

I would like to acknowledge again the support of my two colleagues in the referee department.

Finally, I would like to personally sign off as Referee Manager. I am leaving that position (and Sydney) at the end of Feb 2016 to become the Country Referee Development Officer. I have enjoyed my time as Referee Manager and particularly my interaction with fellow members of the association.

REFEREES MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT

REFEREES MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT

2015 was a Rugby World Cup Year and very special year for two of our members - Angus Gardner and George Ayoub who were rewarded for their good form throughout the past season by being selected by the World Rugby as an Assistant Referee and Television Match Official respectively. Both Gus and George represented the association with distinction.

The National Rugby Championships continues to grow in status and many of our officials were given the opportunity to perform in the championships. Andrew Lees was rewarded for his good form by the ARU Selectors and was selected to referee the final of the championships and did a great job.

The association was well represented at the International Level with Angus Gardner and Andrew Lees refereeing International Matches. Will Houston went to the IRB Junior World Championships held in Italy and was selected by the IRB to referee the final of this prestigious event and had a great game. Will also went on to referee the 1st Grade Grand Final between Eastwood and Manly which went right down to the final whistle.

On the World Rugby 7's Series we were once again represented by Anthony Moyes - the most experienced referee in 7's Rugby. Anthony has refereed over 200 games of International 7's, a great achievement at the top level; he has deservedly been selected on the World Rugby Seven Series for the upcoming year.

On the local scene refereeing overall was of a high standard throughout the grades. We have quite a few younger referees coming through the refereeing pathway who are responding to good coaching and are working their way through the grades.

Charles Hartson and Matt Kellahan were appointed to their first 1st Grade games and by all reports both did a very good job – congratulations to Charles and Matt, I am sure there will be many more to come 1st Grade games to come for both.

I would like to thank all our referee coaches for the amount of time and effort they put in over the past season in assisting referees to improve their refereeing skills. Congratulations to Phil Baird on being selected as the Association's Referee Coach of the year a well-deserved and popular choice – well done Phil.

Ron Mancell ran an educational segment at each of our Referee Coaches Meetings which kept the coaches updated in the latest techniques being used. Ron will be sorely missed by the Association when he leaves us this year and must be thanked for his efforts throughout the many years of service.

I would like to thank the members of the Referees Management Committee – Phil Baird, Dan Cheever, John McCarthy and Mick Tanzer for the time and effort they put in throughout the year.

Thank you to the front office staff - Ron, Robin and Alex for their assistance they provided to me during the season, and Ian Frazer for his time, effort and advice on appointments. Finally - thank you to all the referees and referee coaches for their tireless work in 2015.

Enjoy the off-season and I look forward to catching up with you all in 2016.

Peter Marshall

NEW SOUTH WALES RUGBY REFEREES' ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED*STATEMENT BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

As stated in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Association is not a reporting entity because in the opinion of the Executive Committee, there is unlikely to exist users who are unable to command the preparation of reports tailored so as to satisfy all of their information needs. This is therefore a special purpose report that has been prepared to meet the requirements of the Associations Incorporated Act 1984.

In the opinion of the Executive Committee the accompanying financial statements are drawn up so as to give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Association as at the 30th of September 2015 and of its surplus for the year ended on that date in accordance with the accounting policies described in Note 1 to the financial statements.

At the date of this statement there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Association can pay its debts as said when they fall due.

This statement is made in accordance with a resolution of the Executive Committee.
